English Conversation Helpers

What if you could share the Gospel, foster international friendships, and serve from your home, all at the same time?

English Conversation Helpers are a team dedicated to helping international students learn to communicate and converse in English using the book of Mark.

The best part of this program is that anyone who is a native English speaker can participate as a teacher! No prior teaching experience is required and the time commitment is only 30 minutes each week.

This amazing new ministry is gearing up for the spring semester!

Contact Stephanie.Ott@cottonwoodcreek.org for more information.
