GLOBAL Mission

All: Persecuted Countries – Brunei

Brunei has been a sultanate for more than 600 years, and all important positions are still held by the Sultan himself. People deeply revere and respect him and any criticism is seen as unacceptable. His government provides free medical services and subsidizes goods such as rice and housing. There are no school fees for state schools, and citizens of Brunei do not have to pay income tax. His politics are based on revenues from large oil and gas fields, covering 90% of the government's GDP. Even the sultan's announcement of introducing Sharia penal law in May 2014 did not change the peoples' affection for him. Minorities like Christians, who make up 16% of the population, are feeling increased pressure, since the sultan leans more and more towards conservative Islam.

Prayer Points: 1) Pray for Malay Muslims who turn to Christ and now face strict punishment under Sharia law; 2) Pray for opportunities for Christians to gather together in prayer and fellowship; 3) Pray that Muslim families would encounter Christ while persecuting Christian family members.
