THIS WEEK'S MEMORY VERSE

Hebrews 13:5-6 (Godly Living) - 5 Keep your life free from love of money, and be content with what you have, for he has said, "I will never leave you nor forsake you." 6 So we can confidently say, "The Lord is my helper; I will not fear; what can man do to me?"

The Conversation Guide is a great tool for individuals, families, discipleship groups and Missional Communities to take a deeper, more personal dive into the content the current sermon series. The Conversation Guide will be posted every Friday in the News & Blog section of our website. We encourage you to use it this week on your own, around your dinner tables, over coffee with your friends and in your Bible studies!

*QUESTIONS FOR KIDS! We've added asterisks to questions most suitable for children.

Conversation Questions

- 1. What are your criteria for evaluating whether a news source is credible?
- 2. *Read 1 John 5.1-12. What words, phrases or verses stand out to you? Why?
- 3. In verses 1-4, John points to some indicators that a person has been "born of God." What are some of the indicators that he talks about?
- 4. John talks about "belief" in Jesus in verses 1, 4, 5, and 10. Why do you think John repeats himself this way, and why do you think that is important for everyday life?
- 5. In the Gospel of John chapter 11, verse 25, Jesus says about himself: "I am the resurrection and the life. The one who believes in me will live, even though they die." Why would believing Jesus bring you eternal life?
- 6. Some people think following God's commands is a burden. John tells us in verse 3 that following God should not be burdensome. Is there a way that you could love God that is not out of obligation, but out of love?
