Conversation Questions

1. *Have you ever gotten into a conflict with someone at work or school? Describe the situation.
2. *Read James 4:1-10. What words or phrases stand out to you? Why?
3. *According to verses 1-2 what is the source of our conflicts with another? Think of a conflict that you've had. Can you trace the source of that conflict back to what James is talking about?
4. How does James say humility will bring an end to conflict (v.)? Is it easy or hard for you to believe this and why?
5. In verses 6-10, James provides a solution to our fights and quarrels. What does he say?
6. Is there a conflict that you're involved in right now where God is calling you to humble yourself? Take a moment to "draw near to God" and ask for his help.
