The Conversation Guide is a great tool for individuals, families, discipleship groups and Missional Communities to take a deeper, more personal dive into the content of the current sermon series. The Conversation Guide will be posted every Friday in the News & Blog section of our website. We encourage you to use it this week on your own, around your dinner tables, over coffee with your friends or in your Bible studies!

Conversation Questions

1. Describe a relationship in your life that took a lot of work to find common ground and unity. What is that relationship like today?
2. *Read 1 Corinthians 1:10-17. What verse or phrase stands out to you most? Why?
3. *What do you think it means to “agree” and to be “united in the same mind and judgement” (v.10)?
  - a. Why is this such hard work in the church?
  - b. What do you think Paul implies should unite us (v.13)?
4. The Corinthians were being divided by allegiance to particular teachers. We are tempted to be divided in similar ways today. Why do you think this is such a temptation? How does it threaten the unity of the church today?
5. *Paul assumes that everyone he is writing to has been baptized in the name of Jesus. Have you been baptized as a follower of Jesus? Why or why not?
6. Take some time to pray for the unity of the church. Especially pray for your part in seeking unity.
