The Conversation Guide is a great tool for individuals, families, discipleship groups and Missional Communities to take a deeper, more personal dive into the content of the current sermon series. The Conversation Guide will be posted every Friday in the News & Blog section of our website. We encourage you to use it this week on your own, around your dinner tables, over coffee with your friends or in your Bible studies!

Conversation Questions

1. Other than your parents, whose investment in your life is paying the greatest dividends right now? What did they do that was most helpful?
2. *Read 1 Corinthians 3:10-23. What verse or phrase stands out to you most? Why?
3. *There is a lot of teaching in this section about what kinds of things we use to build in to one another's lives (3:12).
  - a. What kinds of works do you think will prove to be "wood, hay and straw"?
  - b. What kinds of works do you think will prove to be more lasting ("gold, silver and precious stones")?
4. Why is it tempting to build into people using wood, hay and straw, when we know it won't last?
5. For Paul, the antidote to proud human wisdom is remembering that "we are Christ's and Christ is God's." (v.21-23) How would your life look different today if you lived with this truth in mind?
6. Is there any way that you have been building your life or others with wood, hay and straw? Take time to confess that to God and to ask for help to build with the wisdom of God.
