The Conversation Guide is a great tool for individuals, families, discipleship groups and Missional Communities to take a deeper, more personal dive into the content of the current sermon series. The Conversation Guide will be posted every Friday in the News & Blog section of our website. We encourage you to use it this week on your own, around your dinner tables, over coffee with your friends or in your Bible studies!

Conversation Questions

1. *Have you ever been jealous of aspects of another person's life? Share the story.

2. *Read 1 Corinthians 7:10-24. What verse or phrase stands out to you most? Why?

3. The theme of this passage is contentment and peace in whatever circumstance we find ourselves.
 - a. What groups of people does Paul address (example: married, circumcised, servant, etc.) and what advice does he give to each of them about how to experience peace and contentment? (it might help to write this out)

 - b. Put yourself in the shoes of one of these groups. Which group's situation would challenge your peace and contentment the most? Why?

4. *What truths about God does Paul mention to encourage each group of people? (Again, it might help to write this out.)
 - a. "God has called you to peace." (v.15). How do you think Paul's teaching would create peace in our hearts even if our circumstances are less than ideal?

5. What truths about God do you need to experience peace right now? Give thanks for these things in prayer and ask for help to experience God's peace in your circumstances.
