The Conversation Guide is a great tool for individuals, families, discipleship groups and Missional Communities to take a deeper, more personal dive into the content of the current sermon series. The Conversation Guide will be posted every Friday in the News & Blog section of our website. We encourage you to use it this week on your own, around your dinner tables, over coffee with your friends or in your Bible studies!

QUESTIONS FOR KIDS! Questions most suitable for children are marked with an asterisk.

Conversation Questions

1. When you were growing up, did your family have any interesting “identity markers”?
 - a. For example: “In this family we _____ (“...are Packer fans,” “...don’t eat sushi,” “...play canasta,” etc...). What were some of those identity markers and have you kept them?

2. Read 2 Corinthians 5:14-21. What verse or phrase stands out to you most? Why?

3. The Bible teaches that our identity (who we are) is something that we receive from God, not something that we need to create or discover.
 - a. What does this passage teach about Christian identity?

4. What does the passage teach about God and what he has done in Jesus? How do you think these things are related to what it teaches about Christian identity?

5. Which of these truths is easiest for you to believe? What is hardest for you to believe? Why?
 - a. How would your life change if you really believed what this scripture teaches about who you are because of Jesus? Be as specific as you can.

Give thanks for all that God has done and ask for his help to walk in the truth of your identity in Christ.
