Conversation Questions

The Conversation Guide is a great tool for individuals, families, discipleship groups and Missional Communities to take a deeper, more personal dive into the content of the current sermon series. The Conversation Guide will be posted by every Monday on the 'live' page of our website and in our weekly newsletter. We encourage you to use it this week on your own, around your dinner tables, over coffee with your friends or in your faith groups!

The Conversation Guide is built on the SOAP model, which is a tool you can use when reading the Bible. SOAP helps you be intentional about paying attention to:

- Scripture that stands out to you while you read
- Observations you are making about a passage
- Applications that connect the verses to your real life and relationships
- Prayer that invites God to participate in all that you do

Getting to Know Me: What's the last movie you saw or book that you read with a plot twist that really caught you off guard? Tell about it.

Read Hebrews 10:1-18

S: What verses, phrases, words, or feelings stand out to you as you read this text? Is anything "illuminated," surprising, or jumping off the page and affecting your spirit?

O: What do you think it means that "...the law has but a shadow of the good things to come instead of the true form of these realities..." (v.1) How does this passage help you better understand the relationship between the Old and New Testaments?

O: This passage brings the main argument of Hebrews to a close: We shouldn't turn back to the old covenant with all of its earthly, visible, tangible, temporary priests and sacrifices, because Jesus is our Great High Priest.

What attributes and activities of Jesus are highlighted in this passage?

How does what Jesus has done impact our identity as Christians (v.14-18)?

A: If God had written this passage just for you, what words, phrases or ideas would he have underlined specifically for you? What did you need to hear most? Why?

A: Are there any promises in this scripture reading about who Jesus is, what he has done, or who we are as a result that are hard for you believe? Why? How would trusting these promises change your life today? Is there any particular circumstance or relationship that they would affect right now?

P: Talk to God about your application responses above. Ask him to speak to you, help you, forgive you, and provide direction that you need.
